

Position Description for the Chairman of the Board

The role and responsibilities as Chairman of the Board include: (i) approving information submitted by management to the Board; (ii) approving the agenda for Board meetings; (iii) leading meetings of the non-management directors and Board of Directors; and (iv) serving as liaison between the non-management directors and the President and Chief Executive Officer.